Ethnography, Diversity and Urban Space

Edited by Mette Louise Berg, University of Oxford, UK, Ben Gidley, University of Oxford, UK and Nando Sigona, University of Birmingham, UK

Across Europe, multiculturalism as a public policy has been declared 'dead' but, everyday multiculturalism is alive and well. This book explores how people live with diversity in contemporary cities and towns across Europe. It weaves together ethnographic case studies with contemporary social and cultural theory about urban space, migration, transnationalism and everyday multiculturalism.

This book was originally published as a special issue of Identities: Global Studies in Culture and Power
